

What have we been learning this week?

Week beginning 23/09/24

What a busy week, we have made gingerbread playdough this week. We had some apples given to us and the children loved chopping them up adding cinnamon and ginger to the mix; so much so that on Thursday Miss Lumb made apple and cinnamon cakes with the children. They were delicious! We learnt about road safety before a village trip next week.

Literacy

This week we read more of the stories and found the Gingerbread man had a great song to share—we have been singing the song all week.

Math's

We have been playing shop keepers this week and have been using amounts of money in context to items sold. We have been counting and sorting into size order.

Next Week

We are going to visit Huxley's the bakers shop on Friday morning—all the children that attend that day will buy their own gingerbread man. We will be making salt dough gingerbread men and will be counting eyes. Buttons and smiles. We will be learning about road safety a little more and will play with road signs in the bike/trike area.
