

What have we been learning this week?

Spring 2—Week beginning 24.2.25

What a wonderful first week back to school, we have had a busy week painting still life daffodil flowers. We have been exploring some new small word toys. We have begun our "Squiggle while you wiggle" exercised to help with gross and fine muscle skills this week we danced side to side and up and down. We had visitors on Friday from Nain and Taid Jones who spoke and sang with us in Welsh, we made Welsh cakes and mad leek and potato soup. We learnt where Wales was and about it's culture and traditions.

Book of the week- Chocolate moose for greedy goose

Rhyme of the week- If your happy and you know it

Word of the week- near

Literacy

This week a suitcase arrived in school, who's is it and where are they going? We found out that a character called Hattie Peck owned the suit case. We have been rhyming words.

Math's

During our morning math's this week we have been subitizing numbers to 6 we have played games with dice and items and flash cards and have been getting faster at identifying the total number when we see a group of objects.

Next Week

Next week we will be making pancakes for Shrove Tuesday. We will learn where the tradition came from. We will be looking at different places around the world with a special focus on Antarctica and the animals that live there. We will be making rain shakers. On Thursday the 6th it's World Book Day feel free to dress up as a favorite story character.

Book of the week- The duck in the truck

Rhyme of the week- Five currant buns

Word of the week- New

